IFF 2009 SHORT FILM COMPETITION - WINNER ANNOUNCEMENT

After a long, detailed, and critical evaluation, our three acclaimed judges have chosen and declared five talented newborn directors.

Gotot Prakosa, Marianne Rumantir and Farah Azalea, whose experience in filmmaking and production is unquestionable, have chosen the following people to receive the prestigious international awards from The Indonesian Film Festival 2009.

Robby Ertanto – Nyawa-nyawa Mendamaikan Persada

as THE BEST FILM, IFF 09

Ari Rusyadi – Pabrik Dodol

as THE BEST DOCUMENTARY, IFF 09

Nala – The First Nation on Mars

as THE OFFICIAL SELECTION, IFF 09

Dirgayuza Setiawan – Kamu: Sebuah Drama Cinta

as THE OFFICIAL SELECTION, IFF 09

Andra Fembrianto – Two Billion Desirables

as THE OFFICIAL SELECTION 09

The Indonesian Film Festival would like to congratulate the five winners.

Five kris-shaped trophies will be given during the Award Ceremony that will take place on the Opening Night, Friday, 15 August 2009 at RMIT Capitol Theatre, Swanston St.

All of the fresh, original short movies will be screened on Monday, August 17 2009, at The Melbourne University - Yasuko Hiraoka Myer Room, Sidney Myer Asia Centre.

We fully encourage you to attend this screening, as it will show you the hidden talents that Indonesian filmmakers have. It is no surprise that these very names will appear on the big screen one day.

Congratulation! Maju Perfilman Indonesia!
